

Stroke Awareness

Risks, Recognition, and Prevention

Monday, March 9, 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

The Commons - Corewell Health Senior Living - Independent Living - Farmington Hills
21300 Archwood Circle

Held in The Tarpinian Room located in the Town Commons building

Stroke is a medical emergency of the brain that can lead to life changing deficits and disability.

Stroke Awareness will discuss:

- Prevalence and Facts
- Types of Stroke
- Risk Factors
- Signs and Symptoms
- Prevention Tips

Presented by: Corewell Health Farmington Hills Injury Prevention

Contact

For more information contact Julie Wagner 248-615-2898